Patent Title: Snug fitting floating eyewear

Abstract: Patent 525122 Floating eyewear hat fits snugly to a users face, comprising, a frame having a middle bridge with lenses on either side of the frame. Two temples on either side of the frame with at least one opening therethrough Each temple has a n inner and outer surface. The outer surface having a convex shape in order to fit around the head. Each side temple is fixed to the frame via hinges which allow them to be folded against the frame for easy storage and handling. Resilient float pads are fitted within the openings, wherein the pads engagement with the wearers head creates a snug fit and said pad having sufficient buoyancy to overcome the combined weight of the frame and temples permitting the eye where to float in the water.
